Speaker 1 00:00

So what is your name?

Thomas 00:02

Simon Cowell, no, Thomas.

Speaker 1 00:06

Thomas, what have you, what's your favourite song that you've been doing in the session?

Thomas 00:11

Jazz.

Speaker 1 00:14

Jazz? Why?

Thomas 00:16

Because it's just, it's just nice, just flows and I don't know, I think, I think it's, it's, I like, all of them equally, and I think everything, every single one of them, is great, but I enjoy playing jazz more than the others, probably because, I get to like solo.

Speaker 1 00:41

Yeah you've got a solo. So this kind of goes on to that. But what have you enjoyed most?

Thomas 00:47

About this like, like, what we're doin'?

Speaker 1 00:49

The whole thing? Yeah, what would be your highlight?

Thomas 00:52

Just getting in a room and playing music, a bunch of good musicians, and, you know, writing songs and, you know, just, just having fun, you know, suggesting ideas, let's do this, let's do that, and doing all, you know, actually writing it out and getting the music out there. It's like, that's pretty cool. Like, you know, that's, that's like, something I find amazing.

Speaker 1 01:13

How did it feel when you brought your own idea and everyone was playing it?

Thomas 01:19

It felt amazing, because no one's ever played a song of mine, and that's the first time I've heard it played by other people, and it sounds great.

Speaker 1 01:30

That's great. And...

Thomas 01:32

Now I have to learn the piano, but

Thomas 01:35

Yeah, the piano part, because I've wrote it. And then Jon said he's not going to be in the performance. So I said, What? Well, you know, and he said, what? I'll learn it then.

Speaker 1 01:35

You're trying to learn the piano?

Speaker 1 01:46

Brilliant that's great. So you're learning piano, so that kind of goes into the next thing, actually. What have you learned while you've been in the session, or throughout?

Thomas 01:54

Learning to play with different people, and you know, if I make a mistake, then learning how to deal with it. And a bunch of other stuff. I can't think of anything right now.

Speaker 1 02:08

You've said loads, that's That's fab. Thank you.
